Rejoice With Those Who Rejoice

Our lives are filled with moments of transition. When we are 4 we look forward to the moment we turn 5 so we can go to school like a big kid. When we are 5 we can't wait to turn 10 so we can be double digits! When we are 10 we can't wait to turn 13 so we can be teenagers. When we are finally 13 we want to be 15 or 16 and can drive or be 18 so we can be adults. The important thing to remember is to celebrate the accomplishments along the way, and enjoy each day as a gift from God. Our dear Shelby is graduating High School and will go on to do great things, and we are so proud of her. I am reminded of the words in Romans 12:15 as Paul is encouraging the brethren to be like Christ he writes "rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep." We often find this aspect of our walk with Christ to come naturally and I for one am excited to have this opportunity to rejoice with Shelby! Shelby, we love and appreciate you and cannot wait to see the amazing things that you will accomplish. We are always here for you, and we hope that you will always remember the love this church has for you!

Shelby will be graduating from Giles County High School on May 23, 2024. She plans on going to Columbia State Community College the fall of 2024. She plans on pursuing a nursing career, preferably leaning toward the field of ultrasounds in obstetrics. Shelby wants to help others in any way she can, and nursing is the avenue Shelby has chosen to accomplish her goals. Nursing has been a lifelong dream of Shelby's.

Weep With Those Who Weep

In reading the Romans 12:15 in writing a message for Shelby I was reminded of a few things. While they are in a moment of rejoicing, we also have a few families that are in a moment of weeping. We need to remember that there are several families that are experience loss of loved ones. This is a moment where these families are filled with sorrow and are in need of our prayers and the comfort that we can offer. So my challenge for us this week is to reach out to some of the ones who have received bad news or have lost a loved one. Write them a card, give them a call, do something to show them the loved that has first been shown unto us!
